

CAYUGA COMMUNITY COLLEGE LIBRARY RESEARCH AWARD

PURPOSE: To encourage and recognize student achievement in information literacy as evidenced in a research project submitted to a credit-bearing course offered by Cayuga Community College.

AWARD: The recipient is awarded $200, and has his or her name inscribed on a plaque displayed in the Library.

AWARD DATE: The award is given annually, after the spring semester.

ELIGIBILITY: Cayuga faculty may submit up to 3 student research projects per course section after obtaining the student's permission to do so. Each research project submitted must be for a Cayuga Community College class completed during the current academic year. A student who would like to have a project submitted should contact the faculty member who assigned the project.

HOW TO ENTER: A print copy of the research project is submitted to the Library. Each project must include a completed submission form along with a copy of the assignment for which the paper was written. Student identification is covered before projects are reviewed by members of the evaluation committee.

SELECTION PROCESS: Each research project is measured against these specific information literacy competencies:

- a focused topic or thesis statement
- use of varied and carefully selected sources of information
- logical analysis and presentation of information
- correct and consistent use of a citation style.

SELECTION COMMITTEE: The committee consists of the Cayuga Community College librarians.

Submission forms are available in the Library and on the Library website www.cayuga-cc.edu/library.
